HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

- I am into singing, and I also enjoy playing the piano.
- I am a tech enthusiast, and I am always ready to experience and get acquainted with the latest gadgets and innovations.
- I enjoy reading content related to finance and keep myself abreast with all sorts of economic and financial updates. I love participating in events and have also won positions and awards in some of them.
- I teach some less fortunate students of 5th to 10th grade at my home in my spare time, and it's a wonderful experience overall. It gives me a sense of accomplishment when I see them getting better grades, and teaching them also benefits me in remembering and retaining the subjects and topics I learned in school.
