OBJECTIVE

I would like to bring my strong sales ability and other solid skills to your fine retail establishment in the retail sales associate position you are currently advertising. Though my enclosed resume provides a good overview of my strengths and achievements, I have also listed some of your specific requirements for the position and my applicable abilities.

My strengths in customer service, inventory management, and merchandising have helped me earn consistent recommendations in previous positions. I work hard to accomplish daily goals and satisfy customers, but also frequently go above and beyond the requirements of my job to make informed suggestions on ways the store can improve sales and maximize customer retention.

With my integrity, dedication, skills, and responsible nature I am confident I can be a valuable asset to your team.
