PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am fluent in key social media platforms, with an emphasis on Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, and Instagram. My exceptional written communication skills allow me to craft effective tweets and posts that inspire user engagement and drive traffic. I'm also comfortable with Google ads and Hostinger, and have experience managing a regular content schedule.

In addition, I've worked with social media analytics tools such as Copy.ai, and am proficient in analyzing a set of data and semantics from social media platforms such as Twitter. I am then able to interpret and draw solutions from these sets of data and successfully strategize future social media campaigns based on them.
